Please read this document carefully. It sets out the terms on which we agree to act for our clients and contains details of our regulatory and statutory responsibilities. Please contact us immediately if there is anything in these terms of business that you do not understand or with which you disagree. Your Policy Wording should be read carefully to ensure your insurance suits your requirements.

Our Service

Regulatory Status: Brokersure is a trading name of Brokersure Ltd. Authorised and Regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority FCA No: 501719.

All policies are offered on a non-advised basis. You will not receive any recommendations. You will be provided with enough information to make an informed decision, and then you will need to decide if the product is suitable for you. Premiums and availability of cover may vary depending on individual circumstances.

Your Insurer

We always use recognised insurers who are to the best of our knowledge financially sound. However, we cannot guarantee the solvency of any particular insurer and if you feel it necessary you must ensure that the choice of insurer meets your requirements. Details of who your insurer is can be found on your policy documentation.

Our Remuneration

This insurance is arranged under a delegated authority arrangement delegated by the Insurer(s) to us, an insurance intermediary. As an agent of the insurer, we may perform certain duties on their behalf including but not necessarily limited to confirming insurance cover, providing policy documentation including evidence of insurance cover, making policy amendments, and receiving and processing premiums and refunds.

In exchange for our services, we as the intermediary, are remunerated in the form of commission, which is an amount of the insurance premium paid by you and allowed to us by the insurer with whom the insurance contract will be placed. We may in addition earn another form of income which is contingent on meeting certain targets as set by the insurer(s).

Financial Conduct Authority

You can check our authorisation on the FCA's Register by visiting the website www.fca.org.uk or by contacting the FCA on 0800 111 6768.

Important- Disclosure of Information by You

Under English law, if you are a consumer insured (an individual buying insurance wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to their trade, business, or profession) you have a duty to take reasonable care to answer the insurer's questions fully and accurately and to ensure that any information that you/they volunteer is not misleading. This duty exists before the cover is placed and any time that it is varied, and the policy wording may provide that it continues for the duration of the policy.

If you do not do this, the insurer may be able to impose different terms on the cover, may charge a higher premium, or, in some circumstances, may be able to avoid the policy from inception and any claims under it would not be paid. A circumstance is material if it would influence an insurer's judgment in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms. If you are in any doubt whether a circumstance is material, we recommend that it should be disclosed.

Failure to disclose a material circumstance may entitle an insurer to impose different terms on the cover or proportionately reduce the amount of any claim payable. In some circumstances, an insurer will be entitled to void the policy from inception, and in this event any claims under the policy would not be paid.

Confidentiality of Information

All personal information about you will be treated as private and confidential (even when you are no longer a customer), except where the disclosure is made at your request, with your consent, in relation to administering your insurance, or where the law requires us.
